

U.S. Poultry & Egg Association and Harold E. Ford Foundation Support Poultry Science Programs

In 2009, the U.S. Poultry & Egg Association's board of directors awarded more than $171,000 from the Harold E. Ford Foundation to colleges and universities to support student recruiting and retention efforts at colleges and universities.

Institutions that received funding are: Alabama Baldwin Agricultural College, University of Arkansas, Auburn University, Cal Poly State university, California State University – Fresno, Clemson University, University of Georgia, Jones County Junior College, Louisiana State University, Mississippi State University, Modesto Junior College, North Carolina State University, Pennsylvania State University, Stephen F. Austin State University, and West Virginia University.

U.S. POULTRY & EGG
HAROLD E. FORD
— FOUNDATION —